

Quick Start embark Session August 2017

8:15 a.m.: Check-In Begins

You need to address the following between the time you arrive for check-in and when the Quick Start session officially begins at 9:00 a.m.

- Complete the OneCard Agreement form (which you will receive at check-in). A member of the Quick Start staff will lead groups of students to the OneCard office to help expedite the process. The OneCard office is located on the bottom level of Highsmith University Union (its entrance is located on the exterior of Highsmith, adjacent to the Bookstore).

9:00 – 9:30 a.m.: Student Life at UNC Asheville

Get a glimpse of the various on-campus resources and opportunities to get involved at UNC Asheville and the surrounding community. You will also receive information about the opening of the semester including Convocation and rendezblue, kicking off today!

9:30 – 10:05 a.m.: Multicultural Awareness with Multicultural Affairs

This presentation will focus your attention on UNC Asheville's campus community and the opportunities available for you to connect and make a positive impact through this particular campus program.

10:05 – 10:15 a.m.: Comfort Break

10:20 – 10:50 a.m.: Career Center Information Session

UNC Asheville's Career Center can help you not only find an on-campus job, but also provide you with the skills, knowledge and practice to prepare for a successful internship and/or career. A member from the Career Center staff will facilitate a presentation highlighting the available services and resources offered through this office.

10:50 – 11:25 a.m.: Academic Advising and Curriculum Overview

This session will provide you with an overview of the curriculum, highlight important deadlines and registration dates, as well as provide you with online resources that will help you create an academic plan that best suits your needs, schedule and interests during your time at UNC Asheville.

11:25 – 11:45 a.m.: Wrap-up/Final Questions

We will provide you with information regarding the rest of the day's activities and the kickoff to rendezblue 2017! We have a lot of fun activities scheduled for this upcoming weekend, which we want to make sure you are aware of and will participate in as you begin your transition into UNC Asheville.

Don't forget – Convocation line-up begins at 3 p.m. in the Student Recreation Center with all incoming students present no later than 3:45 p.m. This is the official start to the academic year and the first event for rendezblue 2017! The ceremony will last from 4 – 5 p.m. with all incoming students then joining faculty and staff on the Quad for the Campus Picnic and Rockypalooza from 5 – 7 p.m.
