Transition & Parent Programs
Highsmith University Union, CPO #1200
UNC Asheville • One University Heights
Asheville, NC 28804-8501

August 9–13, 2015
rich tradition of ethnic food, and engage in the numerous subcultures in the surrounding community. This program will also introduce you to UNC Asheville’s Connections Peer Mentoring Program, which advocates and advances diversity through relationships, awareness, education and community building on campus.

CSI: Community Service Involvement
Explore Asheville’s people and culture through a wide range of volunteer service opportunities. Examine issues of social justice by working with UNC Asheville faculty and staff and nonprofit organizations committed to helping make our city a better place to live and learn.

Wilderness Experience
Explore the natural beauty of your new home and sleep under the stars. Backpacking in the wonderful Blue Ridge Mountains will give you the chance to challenge yourself, make new friends, and learn more about what your college experience has to offer. Finish off the week at base camp and participation in climbing, biking, canoeing, and/or rafting trips (choose trips during registration). No outdoor experience is necessary and all required equipment is provided.

All That Jazz!
Learn about UNC Asheville’s on-campus music opportunities and also experience the vibrant Asheville area music scene. Check out a local radio station, enjoy some of Asheville’s favorite music venues, visit the active busking scene in downtown Asheville, and explore the impact of Bob Moog’s influence on music.

Blue Ridge Sampler
Travel to some of the best scenic areas and day hikes the Blue Ridge Mountains have to offer. Take in the views, challenge yourself, and try a new adventure sport while you get to know your classmates. By night, you will stay at base camp, cook dinner and sleep in a rustic cabin. Relax around the campfire, gaze at the stars, and get ready for your next adventure at UNC Asheville. No outdoor experience is necessary and all required equipment is provided.

It’s Easy Being Green
If you’re passionate about sustainability, so are we. In fact, it’s an essential part of everyday life here at UNC Asheville. Come together with other students to examine sustainability efforts on our campus, as well as explore ways in which local farms and businesses are making sure they are environmentally, economically and socially sustainable. You’ll be inspired with a deeper understanding and appreciation for sustainability.

Scholarships are available through the Karpinos Scholarship Fund for participants in CSI: Community Service Involvement, It’s Easy Being Green and Wilderness Experience.
